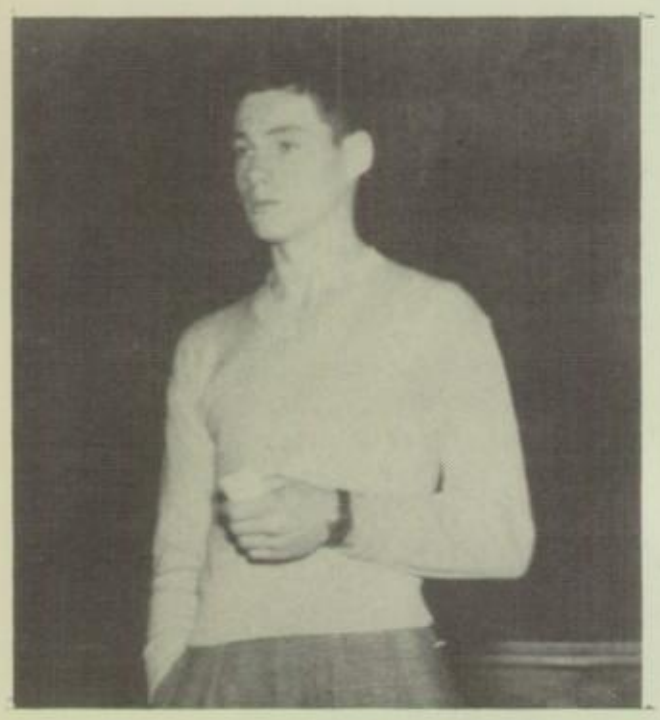
STUDENT COUNCIL -- DEMOCRACY IN ACTION

Standing: B. Johnson, A. Aaberg, T. Vandersluis, G. Hock, A. Moberg, F. Norman, K. Nelson, R. Wilkens, H. Watson, R. Smith.
Seated: M. McCarty, D. Christensen, N. Anderson, R. Nagle, J. Hanson, G. Linn, B. Kellogg.



Robert Nagle,
Student President

Special events under the guidance of the Student Council are election of cheerleaders, assemblies, after-game dances, Bobcat Day activities. The picture at the right shows the bonfire held during the annual Bobcat Day activities.

Problems that arise in the school are brought before the Council and discussed and then sent to the students in each home room for a final settlement.

Planning for an enduring world's peace must be effected through the people. The Student Council, a group made up of one member chosen in each home room, learns to govern according to our high democratic principles. The president, who must be a senior, is chosen by popular vote by the students during the previous spring. Every nominee has his own campaign planned by a manager.

To our great Cellists
you can do it better than us!
Good Luck to you in majorette
maybe you can be the head one?! (shape)

The "Sox Hop"

Sixteen senior girls chosen for their scholarship and participation in extra-curricular activities during their first three years in high school form the Senior Service Society. In assemblies, at pep meetings, and at games, these girls help to inspire the entire school with their enthusiasm. They presented a skit for Bobcat Day, sponsored an after game dance, gave a Thanksgiving basket and Christmas presents to under privileged children, and taught aspiring freshmen to dance.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

Dick Nagle, Editor

BOBCAT Each year the senior class publishes a yearbook for their final gift to the high school. The staff is chosen by the preceding staff. Each annual portrays the activities of each department of the school and records the hi-lights of the year. Copies are sent to the S. D. H. S. P. A. and to the N. S. P. A. to be rated. The 1944 Bobcat received an All-State Superior rating. The 1945 Bobcat received a First Class National rating.

THROUGH OUR PUBLICATIONS

BROBOCA

Journalists learn to know facts and to express opinions through their work on the student paper, the Broboca.

A plan for rotating editorship gave each journalism student a chance to edit the paper for a week. Shirley Rymerson, Barbara Revell, and Barbara Baker served as co-editors for the second semester.

Last year, under the editorship of Richard Nagle, the Broboca won its second consecutive NSPA All-American rating and its first All-State rating from SDHSPA.

Declam winners: Barbara Baker, Carol Gilkerson, Dick Nagle, Helen Hansen

Lack of a debate coach eliminated any interscholastic competition in debate, extempore, or oratory, but under Miss Leotta Hampton, adviser, Forensic Club kept speech interest alive.

Carol Gilkerson earned a superior rating for her dramatic readings at the divisional declamation contest at Madison, December 5, qualifying her for the state contest, in which she won an excellent rating. Richard Nagle, in oratory, and Barbara Baker, in poetry, won excellent ratings. Helen Hansen received a good in the humorous division.

During second semester, club members worked on extemp, debate, and original oratory.

THE PLAY'S

"HEADED FOR EDEN"

Sr. Play Cast: Second Row: Jack Earley, Stanley Corlett, Dick Nagle, Darwin Paul, Roger Smith, John DeWitt, Paul Hansen. 1st row: Cherian Burdett, Margaret Petersen, Beverly Rude, Joan Smith, Agnes Jornlin, Patty Deyling, Rosella Peterson, Lolita Lund, Twila Olson. Absent, Ardis Eken.

On November 30, 1945, the seniors with their class play "Headed for Eden" broke all records of attendance, performing before a house of 1,400 people.

The play told the story of the struggle to keep a young man, Jack Earley, from having to pay for someone else's crime. Margaret Peterson and Dick Nagle held leads, but it was Roger Smith, playing the part of a crippled tramp, who gave the most lauded dramatic performance. Roger's short scene, aided by well planned lighting effects, made an effective climax.

Everybody pitched in to help Jack. The setting for the story was a rooming house whose proprietor, Agnes Jornlin, and her very attractive roomers — Lita Lund, Cherian Burdett, Patty Deyling, Beverly Rude, Rosella Peterson, Twila Olson, and Ardis Eken—became novice sleuths. Joan Smith and Paul Hansen cut capers while Darwin Paul solved the case. John DeWitt was the money-man and Stan Corlett, the muscle man.

Play production staff chairmen were: Business manager, Horace Fishback; electrician, Lloyd Hansen; costumes, Lois Oleson; make-up, Charlotte Gustavson; prompters, Darleen Allen, Elizabeth Fuller; advertising, Jim Hanson; stage crew, Marvin Peters; prop., Donna Richards; ushers, Stan Rymerson. The play was directed by Miss Madge Dietz.

Jr. Play Cast: Back row: Robert Koerper, Verlyn Tufty, Bob Taylor, Rosemary Miller, Margaret Sorensen, C. Christie, Gladys Linn. Front row: Anna Belle Johnson, Jim Sprague, Carol Gilkerson, Bob Wilkins, Leona Hollaway, Walter Sharp.

Descending into the middle of a mysterious tangle of events as result of a theft, Mr. Butterworth sees and straightens out this situation with his much belated arrival as the new owner of the hotel.

"Are you Mr. Butterworth", a mystery-comedy, was presented by the Junior class, March 22, and profits defrayed expenses on the prom and banquet.

The cast was: Robert Wilkins, Dan Meredith; Carol Gilkerson, Helen Worth; Bob Taylor, "Mack" McGinnis; Margaret Sorensen, Virginia Blair; Jim Sprague, Tommy; Verlyne Tufty, Kat; Rosemary Miller, Sylvia DeLany; Gladys Linn, Mrs. Benson.

Leona Hollaway, Arabella VanCleve; Walter Sharp, Mr. Leon Bashinsky; Anna Belle Johnson, Katrinka Roden; Robert Koerper, Mr. Butterworth; and Craig Christie, Telegraph Boy.

The production staff chairmen were: Business mgr. Wayne Johnson; electricians, John Taylor, Ray Poula; stage crews, Don Back; stage props, Doris Solberg; costume, Charlotte Allen; make-up, Elaine Friedrich; prompters, Lucille Beckman, Donna Eddy; advertising, Barbara Revell; ushers, Ken Wyman. Meetings are planned so that every other one is educational, the alternate, social.

G. A. A. BOARD

Agnes Jornlin, G. A. A. Pres.

Feeding the fans and the G. A. A. Pocketbook

G. A. A. is, and has been for many years, one of the largest and most active groups in Brookings High School. It is managed by a board which is chosen by the entire club.

Any girl in high school is eligible for G. A. A. Girls who demonstrate special ability may be awarded places on an all-star basketball, speedball, or tumbling team. Points are awarded for each sport. When a girl receives 1,000 points she is awarded a letter; 2,000, a medal; and 3,000, a bracelet.

Officers for this year were: President, Agnes Jornlin; Vice President, Cherian Burdett; Secretary, Lois Oleson; Social Chairman, Lolita Lund; Art Head and Publicity, Joan Smith; Financial Chairman, Margaret Dokken; Financial Assistant, Glorice Hill. The heads of the various sports were also members of the board.

A crowd forms as Ruth tacks up a bulletin.

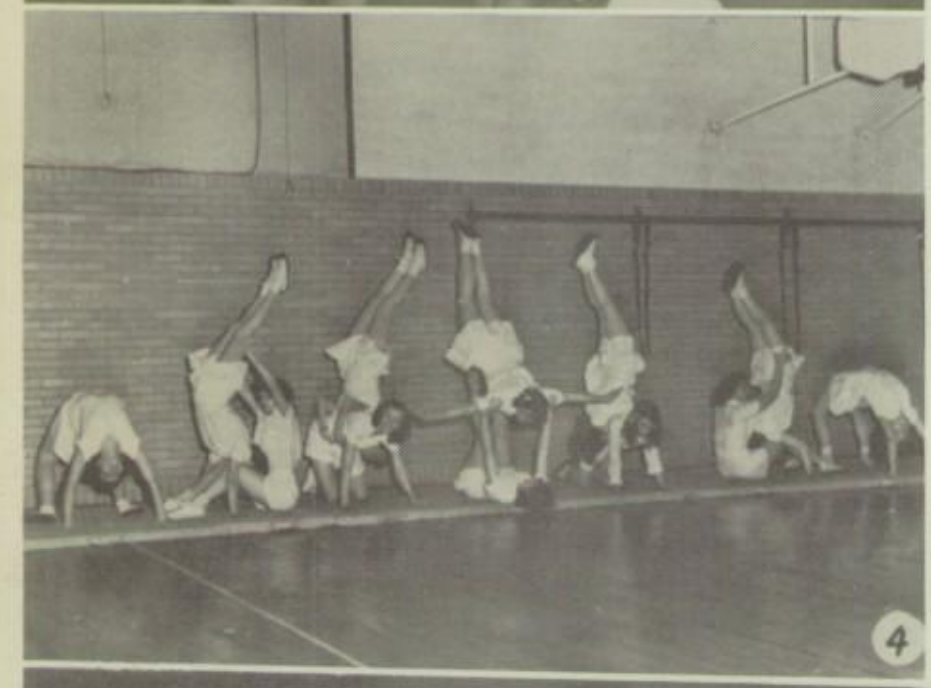
The G. A. A. year begins with speedball, this year headed by Ruth Eclov. Above, (2), a chalk talk is in progress. Speedball is followed by recreational hour, including such games as: darts, ping-pong, shuffleboard, badminton, (1), deck tennis, and aerial darts. Barbara Swering was recreational hour head. The all-star game, (3), ended basketball. Margaret Petersen served as captain.

UNDERSTANDING THE GAMES



This year the advanced tumblers, (4), included twelve girls. The members of an all-star team always receive a set number of extra points. Below, (6), Lucille Beckman, head of tumbling, helps an intermediate group. Virginia Smith, volleyball captain, scheduled games in this sport following the finish of tumbling season. In (6), a line of spectators forms as two teams battle it out!

8

Baseball and track were held inside whenever bad weather prevailed. Track included events such as hurdles, relays, shot-put, high jump, 100 yard dash, and broad jump. Twila Olson was elected head of the former sport, Beverly Rude, of the latter.

The title, "Jack and Jane", of the "Gentless Jive", was bestowed upon Lois and Cherian.

PEOPLE THRO' THEY PLAY

10

The "Gentless Jive", our all-girl dance and the G. A. A. banquet, (11), in the spring, constitute the main social events of the year. On the day of the banquet, the guest speaker, chosen for her interest in girls, speaks at an all-girl assembly.

As any athletic program built on comradeship may unify a school; so may organizations like this bring about better understanding in the world.

Recognition in F. F. A. is given to those boys who show outstanding ability in leadership, cooperation, and citizenship; not only within the chapter but in other school activities as well. To gain this recognition a boy must be actively engaged in many farming activities. Class work also may serve as a rung on the ladder to F. F. A. success. May these boys lead the way to agricultural success in their community and nation!

Understanding and repairing farm implements is an important part of the program.

CITIZENS TOMORROW

Hi Lyn,
you know your my best friend and that's why I have the nerve to argue with you. After all we have to understand each other. I'm glad I'm moving nearer you this summer and I hope you go swimming more. I'll be seeing you then. I don't know what I'd do without someone to tell my troubles to. I think we should go around the world together and meet our men. How 'bout it. I like to
Who knows Think that

OF FRIENDLY STRIFE...

After starting slow, the Bobcats speeded up to snag a tie with Sioux Falls for E. S. D. second place on percentage basis. By the end of the season they were rated by the critics to be the strongest team in the state.

Climax of the season was the downing of Huron, conference champions, 32 to 7. During the season they set new records by gaining 1,983 yards and scoring 179 points, compared to their opponent's 896 yards and 57 points.

Paul Stumley, junior, varsity tackle for two years, will lead 13 returning lettermen in forming the 1946 team.

Brookings Bobcats became kings of South Dakota high school basketball when they wrested a thrilling 30-27 win from the Huron Tigers in the championship game of the state "A" cage tournament at Mitchell March 15. Three Bobcats, Herb Bartling, Gardner Johnson, and Bob Nagle, won places on the all-state team for their performances.

In the ESD conference the small but speedy Bobcats won second place, winning eight games and dropping four. Bob Nagle, senior, was elected captain at the end of the year.

After one of the most successful seasons in years, the Brookings "B" basketball squad finished up with the Upper Sioux Valley conference championship. Boasting such stars as Blauert and Barr, the Kittens were defeated only once. Besides the smooth playing juniors, the squad showed many promising freshmen. Most of the home games were played as preliminaries to the "A" squad's games. Coach Johnson has done a grand job with the team. He deserves much credit.

LYNN LEADS THINCLADS

Track in Brookings was bolstered by the great performances of Harold, "Tad", Lynn. Setting new records in the State and ESD conference, Lynn was held by a number of track fans to be the greatest mile prospect in South Dakota's history. The Bobcat Tracksters as a whole were very impressive, racking up 103 counters in Region 3 competition for a new record. Brookings also placed second in the conference. Returning lettermen should make a stronger squad for the coming year.
